

Don't eliminate this act. This is for many of us who choose not to have caller ID, due to not wanting to pay for it. Yet still be able to pick up the phone and have someone who I want to talk, not some computer trying to find out if I'm home to try and sell me something or give me a new credit card that I don't need or want.